

i want to wake up in the morning want wake and be at peace yeah I've made a choice to do what i want i want to feel alive
i want the sun i want the sun to shine in me
i want to seize the moment
every single day cause

I've only got one life
and im gonna give it
everything got
I've only got one life
and if i dont trust in me then no body else will

i want to stop my daily struggles im sick and tired feeling so dam weak yeah
I've got a dream
it might sound simple but i just want to be myself i want to leave these shadows of doubts that are saying me down

I've only got one life
