

often wondered what you see when you see me often wondered how it made you feel often wondered what you think when you think of me oh often wondered how its makes you feel cause were so close but so far apart yeahwere so close but so far apart

i dont wear fancy clothes and try and treat everyone i meet with respect and
that seems good to me i dont spend on money on things i dont need
and i try and keep my soul in one piece

i wonder were we ever at peace or or did we come out screaming screaming for blood
i try to reach out i try to reach out but you won't let me no no

oh good to me

oh were so close but so far apart
