

you who ever you may be come show your face
and stop your hiding

you are awaited
yes you will be praised upon your arrival

you will be free
to live
your life how you see

i will never
ask you to explain
where you've been

and
all i ask in return
is you allow me to be me
and no expectations

cause love is meant to set us free
not place us in chains

and
all i can promise
is i tell the truth what ever i feel

there
will be no lies girl
and we will grow

and we change

we may even grow apart but thats just life girl

we will be free

to live our lives how we see

i will never ask you to explain where you have been

no

all i ask in return is you allow me to be

me
and no expectations

cause love
is meant to set us free

no t place us in chains
