

sat by my window waiting for you to pass me by but minutes have turned to years and im still here asking why

your promise have been broken every word you spoke a lie the balls now in motion and i watch my heart get crushed alive

and you know what you want you get it all the time
your a man eater
yes you know what you want

you know what you can do
every mans your fool
your eyes cast a magic spell held my heart for years dont thinnk i havent tried but you dont know what you've done to me dont think i have not tried but you dont know what you've done to

your a man eater
