

life is fine
strolling down this street the feelings divine
when ours meet you stop and ask me for the time i loose myself and get tongue tied butterflies flutter and i can help but stutter

oh my god i think im falling in love

sipping on this ice cold beer trying to hide my fear theres couples kissing everywhere and i can not help but stare and im thinking of you
and the things we can do oh yeah

oh my god i think im falling

yeah life is fine
in your eyes im dreaming im dreaming
now butterflies flutter i cant help but stutter i think im falling in love
