

you dont give me enough of your attention got me hungry for your love i dont mean to be a aggravation but you got me hungry for your love you'll say you'll walk out that door but you cant ignore

but you keep playing with my mind
my mind
you keep playing with my mind

you say that im never patient
but you got me hungry for your love so why am i always waiting you got me hungry for your love and for your information i give you everything i can

my mind

and i cant stand your lies no more your playing games thats for sure and im gonna have to say good bye cause you keep playing yes keep playing with my mind

my mind
